3. description of the port
4. At the quay reserved for Naval units were 11 small subchaser-type boats, of old construction, equipped with machine guns and having a length of about 15 meters.
5. nine of the above-mentioned boats tied up in the port put out to sea at about 7:00 a.m. (local time) and returned at about 5:30 p.m. 25X1
6. from about 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., cannon fire, probably coming from land batteries located toward Cape Atiya (N 42-28, E 27-35), east of Sveti Anastas Island (N 42-28, E 27-33). 25X1
7. nine of the boats left the port at about 7:00 a.m., but it was not possible to follow their movements because of the fog which did not lift until about 11:00 a.m. 25X1

[redacted] two subchasers near Cape Atiya and another two subchasers between Cape Atiya and Cape Akin (sic. probably Sveti Nikola, N 42-28, E 27-38), farther to the east. [redacted] there is probably some sort of shelter for small Naval units in this area.
